

PACIFIC PILE & MARINE

Spencer

Steve Spencer, PE, joined Pacific Pile and Marine LP as chief engineer following a long-term consulting relationship with the company. Spencer is a registered professional engineer with 20 years experience as a geotechnical and structural engineer, specializing in the design and construction of marine, underground and foundation projects. His extensive engineering background will help Pacific Pile & Marine develop greater in-house capability and expand the company's capacity, most notably regarding design-build efforts. Pacific Pile and Marine is a privately held heavy civil and marine construction firm specializing in logistically complicated projects throughout the Pacific Northwest, Montana and Alaska.

ANCHORAGE SCHOOL DISTRICT

Five Anchorage School District middle school teachers and counselors participated in the Sally Ride Science Academy this summer in San Diego: Benjamin Johrendt, Hanshaw; Christa Brown, Mears; Cheryl Huber, Ben Colson and Caren Flaten, all from SAVE. Seven Anchorage elementary school teachers were also chosen: Dwane Anderson, Klatt; Traci Caves, Chugach Optional; Ayumi Hattori and Zan Zoske, both from Sand Lake; Mary Herminghaus, Curriculum and Instruction, Science; Robert Stagg, Aquarian Charter School; and Kristina Vlahovich, Chinook. The program aims to promote new strategies to boost interest in science and science careers.

AK COMMUNICATIONS & CONSULTING

Alison Knox signed an agreement with Agency MABU, a marketing and advertising agency based in Bismarck, N.D. Knox owns AK Communications & Consulting. The agreement allows the companies to handle projects for Alaska Native firms and federal government agencies.

SOUTHEAST ALASKA REGIONAL HEALTH CONSORTIUM

Dr. Paul Peters joined the SouthEast Alaska Regional Health Consortium Mount Edgecumbe Hospital in Sitka as a radiologist. He most recently worked in private practice in Casper, Wyo. Drs. Mimi and Brian Benjamin were hired at the Ethel Lund Medical Center in Juneau. The couple previously lived and worked in North Carolina. Mimi Benjamin served as a family physician and as a clinical associate professor at Duke University. Brian Benjamin also worked as a family physician in clinics at Duke University and the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill.

Peters M. Benjamin B. Benjamin

HOTEL CAPTAIN COOK

Bang-On Roulet, the Hotel Captain Cook garden manager, was chosen to compete in the International Fruit and Vegetable Competition in Meaux, France. Roulet, who started as garden manager at the hotel in 2005, specializes in preparing salads, dressings, sushi and other cold foods.

KODIAK CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Trevor Brown was hired as executive director of the Kodiak Chamber of Commerce. He has served as the chamber's economic development specialist since 2007.

KEYBANK

Michael Capenos and Christine Ward were promoted to assistant vice presidents of KeyBank in Alaska. Capenos serves as manager of the Fairbanks main branch. Ward is manager of the Wasilla branch.

LOUNSBURY & ASSOCIATES

James Hall joined Lounsbury & Associates as a project surveyor. Hall has 12 years of surveying experience, including recent work: high-definition laser scanning of 46 bridges on I-215 in Las Vegas.

TELALASKA INC.

Wesley Perkins was hired as Nome area supervisor for TelAlaska Inc. Perkins most recently worked for Nome Public Schools.

Perkins

FIRST NATIONAL BANK ALASKA

Aaron Wilkinson was appointed loan officer for First National Bank Alaska in Soldotna. He started at the bank as a management associate. Mimi Cook was chosen operations supervisor at the Eagle River branch. She was also appointed assistant cashier.

THE MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY ASSOCIATION

Patricia Banks of Wasilla received the Muscular Dystrophy Association's 2010 Robert Ross Personal Achievement Award for Alaska. Banks, who has Lou Gehrig's disease, was honored for her work encouraging others with the disease. She also has raised funds for medical research by selling clothing she knitted with materials from her llama and sheep flocks.

THE GROWTH COMPANY INC.

Sara Beckham joined The Growth Company Inc. as an associate. Beckham has four years of experience in human resource consulting.

GEO NORTH LLC

Richard Greer joined GeoNorth LLC as a programmer/analyst. Greer recently earned a bachelor's degree in computer science from the University of Alaska Anchorage.

NAC PAC express package service makes shipping small packages easy and affordable. We'll even guarantee your small package ships on our next flight or we'll refund your money. That's how confident we are in our service.

NAC PAC service is available between Anchorage and:

- Aniak • Barrow • Bethel • Deadhorse • Dillingham • Fairbanks • Nome • King Salmon • Kodiak
Kotzebue • McGrath • St. Mary's • Unalakleet

800-727-2141 • www.nac.aero

*NAC PAC must be purchased at least 60 minutes prior to flight departure time.